

Dear Coaches,

since our awards shows are highly limited time wise we need to stick to a certain schedule.

Please find below some important information regarding the set up of the awards shows.

Meeting Times:

Please check the meeting times for your according teams and find yourself in the Lobby inferno of the Warm Up Area. Right at scheduled meeting time we will start gathering the according teams into the warm up hall and our staff will take you all down to the stage where the awards will be giving out.

During the Awards

- When coming onto the stage we will seat you in a circle on and around the floor.

Divisions without finals:

- For all placements up to Place 4, please bring two people to the middle and receive your certificate

- For Placements 3, 2 and 1, please bring the entire team to the middle of the stage and receive your trophy, medals, certificates and if you win - also your Championsbanner *

Divisions with finals:

- For all placements up to Finalists, please bring two people to the middle and receive your certificate
- If you placed into finals, please also bring only 2 People to the front to receive your certificate.

Finals:

- Please bring the entire team to the front to receive your certificates, trophies and possible Champions Banner.

* Championsbanner & medals only for team cheer divisions

Please note that the Most Valuable Performance will only be awarded on Sunday afternoon!

After the Awards

We would like to ask you to stay seated until the the last announcement for that awards group has been made. It's just fair since everyone have also waited for you! After the final team has been announced, our lovely staff will show you off the stage through the stage exit and the two set of steps that go right into the arena.
